

5.9. Potential Fertilization Project. The Brown Tract is considering fertilizing all stands that are aged 25 to 40 years. Not only are the forest staff concerned about the proximity of this operation to the stream system, but also to water sources on the forest.

a) How many water sources are within 200 feet of the stands that could potentially be fertilized?

Result: 2